Reason Known For the Rash Act. The body of Owen Ronan, who mys-The body of Owen Roman, who mys-teriously disappeared last Monday morning, was found floating in the Willimuntic river about 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon by some young men who had been searching for him. men who had been searching for him. The body was hardly recognizable, but the contents of the pockets made the identification positive. The supposition that he had committed suicide, which had been prevalent among this friends, was proven by the finding of stones in his pockets and one large rock was found twisted in his coal. There appeared to be a bullet hole in his head although the head was somewhat decomposed.

Francis, Keon who was a member of the party which included G. A. Bartlett, Gilbert Flynn, Arthur McQuillan, Frank McQuillan and R. W. Downer, found the body floating face downward about 250 feet from the road bridge. A boat was secured and the body pushed ashore thealth officer Jenkins stated Thursday afternoon that he had received three certificates from the health officers of the U. S. government located at the New York Central railroad station that three children from that vicinity were coming to this section. The officers who sent these certificates are from the health department in Whishington and have been sent to New York to examine children leaving there and to send a notification to the health officers of the locality to which the children are going. This precaution is being taken in trying to stop the spread of infantile paralysis. Dr. Jenkins also said that the children whose certificates he now has started from New York yesterday and as his order which was issued this morning does not go into effect until tenight he can only take the precautionary measure of notifying the doctors to be on the alert and report any cases to him.
